Fayetteville's Country Christmas December 3rd to Include Fun & Fact-Filled Moments of History

Santa, vendors, music, a home-decorating contest, tractor displays, and a “bit” of history all are in the making to celebrate the Country Christmas in Fayetteville on the historic Square December 3rd.

The Fayetteville Chamber of Commerce is delighted to announce that shopping will be available to vendors that are interested in selling homemade crafts and Christmas items on the square. Stores and vendors will be open until 9:00 p.m. Individual shops will be participating in Christmas promotions to help visitors get that “special” gift.

Pictures with Santa will take place at the Country Place Hotel. Visitors may enjoy caroling on the square while sipping the hot chocolate and spiced tea that will be available to all. Restaurants will be open late to accommodate everyone. The annual home decorating contest is also sponsored by the Fayetteville Chamber of Commerce and the top three winners will be honored with a sign to place in their yards acknowledging this honor. For more information, contact 979-378-4021 or fayettevilletx@yahoo.com.

Additionally, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., the Fayetteville National Honor Society students will provide an evening of fun and learning about Fayetteville's history with “A Night at the Museum”. Location is at the Fayetteville Heritage Area Museum on the Square and free will donations will be accepted to help support the National Honor Society and the Fayetteville Heritage Area Museum. “You never know what surprises may be revealed.”
